STRONG POINTS:

1. Accuracy: all important articles written by specialists.

2. Authority: can be quoted on any subject without fear of successful contradiction.

3. Comprehensiveness: covers a wider field than any other general reference-work. It contains 80,000 articles—30,000 more than any other encyclopaedia.

4. Lucidity: written in language so plain that even the young folks can understand.

5. Illustrations and Maps: carefully prepared to illuminate and explain the text.

6. Convenience: printed on thin paper—not too thin but easy to handle and to leaf.

7. Arrangement: all subjects alphabetically arranged and easy to find.

8. Pronunciation: all except the most common words made clear by a simple phonetic system. Derivations also indicated.

9. Bibliography: every important subject supplemented by a full list of books that may be consulted.

10. Courses of Reading and Study: afford specialized help toward self-instruction in leading branches of knowledge.

11. Research Bureau Service: provides subscribers the free privilege of information from our Editors on any encyclopaedic subject.

12. Attractiveness: monthly prizes stimulate use of volumes thus increasing their interest and value.

Best reference work, for young folks; and best for their elders, of course

There is one general reference work that not only affords unequalled aid to educators, clergymen, business men and women, librarians, judges, lawyers, physicians and those belonging to other professions and callings, but which, as Amelia E. Barr says, is "a family reference book of the highest order." That work is

FIFTH PRINTING

Illustrated from Photographs

$1.25 net

On the Edge of the War Zone

From the Battle of the Marne—to the entrance of the Stars and Stripes

The Proofs of Life After Death

A Symposium by Sir Oliver Lodge and Others.

A reasonable basis for belief in life after death has never been more keenly welcomed than to-day. $2.00 net

Anthology of Magazine Verse for 1917

Edited by William Stanley Braithwaite.

Mr. Braithwaite's fifth annual collection of magazine verse and, because of the quality of the year's poetic achievements, the best of the series, thus far. $2.00 net. Ready in November

The Last Voyage of the Karluk

By Robert A. Bartlett and Ralph T. Hale.

A holiday presentation of a book of Arctic exploration which the New York State Library has recently listed among the hundred best books of 1916. Captain Bartlett has just won new laurels by rescuing the MacMillan expedition in Greenland. $2.00 net

The Standard Index of Short Stories, 1900-1914

Compiled by Francis J. Hannigan of the Boston Public Library.

A valuable work of reference for libraries—in fact for all literary workers. It indexes all the short stories in 25 magazines. The fact that it indexes The Saturday Evening Post, which has never had an index, would be enough in itself to make it indispensable.

$10.00 net. Ready in November

The Poetic Year for 1916

By William Stanley Braithwaite.

A unique and valuable anthology of the poetry published in book form during 1916. $2.00 net

Mrs. Allen's Cook Book

By Ida C. Bailey Allen.

The most up-to-date, yet permanently valuable of cook books.

$2.00 net. Ready in November

The Best Short Stories of 1916

Edited by Edward J. O'Brien.

The second of Mr. O'Brien's interesting estimates of the American short story—a book of genuine interest for all who are watching the development of American literature. The stories he has selected are unusually good reading.
